This document summarizes the Graduate Group in Ecology (GGE) listservs purposes, permissions, and code of conduct.

Listservs associated with the GGE are created and managed to facilitate academic business of members of the graduate group. The single exception, “Social”, is described below. In almost all cases, subscribers to each of these listservs have a need to subscribe; they cannot conduct academic business effectively if they opt out. Given the potential for abuse of a listserv if policies are not implemented and enforced, creation of any new GGE listserv requires consultation with GGE leadership, typically the Chair and Program Coordinator, and the information technology staff of the Department of Environmental Science & Policy (ESP). NB: listservs are created and administered in the University of California (UC) Sympa tool through a variety of mechanisms. Best practice is for the IT staff in ESP to create, own, and administer listservs but for historical reasons, many listservs do not conform. Owners and administrators are described below for each list. In most cases, ownership and management refers to the individual or department who can modify the subscription list, whereas moderators have control over listserv posts.

The following policies and principles apply to all listservs except Social.

1. Content must be restricted to stated purpose for each list.
2. The volume of emails from the listserv must be kept as low as possible, to include all necessary business consistent with the purpose of that listserv. Mass email responses should be considered carefully before replying to a listserv or large email thread: Does this response need to be broadcasted to the entire listserv? Is the content in the email/response relevant to all subscribers?
3. Content shall be, to the greatest extent possible, free of personally identifying information (including names, phone numbers, emails etc.), and individuals posting or forwarding content shall make every effort to ensure that personally identifying information is not forwarded.
4. Subscriptions to a given listserv should be restricted to those who require the listserv to conduct necessary business.
5. The GGE Program Coordinator or a delegated surrogate shall maintain a list of subscribers to all listservs and update subscriptions no less than annually.
6. Posts to moderated listservs by non-subscribers must be approved by the moderator (typically within 3 business days). Emails from subscribers will not be moderated.
7. Consistent with the First Amendment of the US Constitution, the GGE listserv Code of Conduct and Policy restricts listserv content to professional business but strongly encourages civility and professional conduct, which will promote better dialog. Content on listservs should adhere to the UC Davis Principles of Community (https://diversity.ucdavis.edu/principles-community) and Statement of Nondiscrimination (https://www.ucdavis.edu/statement-nondiscrimination/). Posts should use professional, collegial, and not rude language.

8. Posters should refrain from personal attacks on GGE list-serves, and refrain from attacks and pejorative or disparaging characterizations of any race, religion, gender, ethnicity, age, or other protected group.

9. Violations of listserv policy will be brought to the attention of list owners and moderators through reports from identified users or through anonymous reports (via a system to be developed in collaboration with the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Task Force, DEITF). Reports shall include date, time, and sender of the post and a description of how the post violates listserv policies.

10. Subscription to GGE listservs is a privilege and inappropriate use of the privilege may result in restriction and loss of that privilege. If inappropriate content is posted or transmitted, the sender will receive a single warning and reminder of the purpose and policy of the listserv and indicating how policy has been violated. Subsequent violations or attempted violations will result in an immediate one-year suspension from posting, implemented with the blacklisting tool in Sympa. More stringent sanctions may be imposed at the discretion of the Chair in line with guidelines under development of the DEITF. Where appropriate, violations will be reported to Title IX, Harassment & Discrimination Assistance and Prevention Program, law enforcement, or other offices (e.g., for sexual harassment, threats, and other relevant violations).

11. The GGE Program Coordinator shall maintain a list of individuals who have received a warning.

The GGE listservs and guidelines are as follows.

Posts to the list must be friendly in tone and adhere to all other GGE and UC Davis policies. This list has about 700 subscribers. The Chair is not the administrator or owner of this list; administration is the responsibility of student members who do not currently moderate the list. The current contact for this list has been informed that they should consider either moderating or moving the list outside Sympa. At present they have declined to take these steps but may be forced to if posts violate standards described in this code of conduct.
